TO FREE TRADERS.

Do you know a man who a few years ago started a small store, with a few dollars & his own and some borrowed capital, who to-day has a large establishment, employing scores of clerks, and who lives in excellent style, denying himself no reasonable luxury or comfort? There are plenty such in this and other American cities. I, some one were to tell you that this successful man did not know how to carry on business, and that he was constantly injuring himself by his bad methods, would you believe him? Would you not say that his critic was either jealous or a fool? To be sure you would, for it is absurd to charge that a man is running himself in the face of evidence showing that he is rapidly accumulating wealth.

If you are a free trader, though, you must be careful how you throw stones at critics of this kind, for you are in the same boat. You say that the American people are ruining themselves and do not understand their best interests because they choose to levy duties on competing articles rather than upon those things which we cannot produce. But in asserting this you fly right in the face of the fact that no nation ever made such progress as the United States has during the past twenty-five years in the acquisition of material wealth. This is conceded by the most eminent statesmen of the old world and is borne out by statistics.

In short, don't you think that you are a little off your base in holding that protection is a drag on the country, when Gladstone, Bismarck and others have been forced to admit that the prosperity of the United States is the marvel of modern times?—Ex.

The movement to create a Polish kingdom, with Francis Joseph, of Austria, as King, is again being agitated in Austria-Poland and seriously considered in Vienna. In the event of conflict with Russia such a concession to the national pride and aspirations of the Poles, it is argued, would be of great advantage to the cause of Austria by drawing Polish recruits to her armies. Unfortunate Poland, renowned in medieval history as the sole champion of Christendom against the Turks, embraced an area of about 282,000 square miles, of which Russia absorbed 181,000 square miles, Prussia 58,000 and Austria 45,000. The land now sustains a dense population, and they, like King Stanislaus, lament the day that Frederick the Great suggested the partition of their kingdom.

The fact that the New York policemen have been able to discover nearly 200,000 persons overlooked by Mr. Pertei's enumerators puts the finishing touch on the reputation of our absurd national census. We might excuse the enumeration of 20,000 people too many in one town and 30,000 too few in another, but to ask us not to mind the omission of 200,000 is straining our good nature. Congress should charge the $7,000,000 or so spent on the census to profit and loss, wipe out the whole thing and make a fresh start.

The Ohio Democrats a few weeks ago were confident in the ability to elect fifteen Congressmen. Their claim is now reduced to twelve. They even express doubt about defeating Mr. McKinley, though they have gerrymandered his district until its shape resembles a boot with the sole ripped off from heel to toe, and hanging from the point of the boot by a mere thread. Evidently the gerrymander is not producing the results anticipated.

A new desecration of the landscape against which English people are protesting is the posting of advertisements upon the sails of fishing boats. One writes, "We have a great trouble with a large board advertisement of pills stuck up right in the middle of a beautiful bay."

The latest from Chicago states that Mrs. Frank Leslie, who has just opened her Western lecturing tour at that place, maintains that if she should marry at all she will unite her fortunes with a journalist and ignore the alleged French Marquis.

A trade paper reports California canned fruits more closely sold up than ever before at this season, some brands of peaches and apricots are entirely out of first hands. Some entire lines are also reported as close-out.

Tuscarora Times-Review Hon. J. Powning, Republican nominee for Lieutenant Governor, arrived on last evening's stage, and is making a good impression among the yeomanry of this camp.

The 41,000,000 gallons of spirits made in the United Kingdom in 1889 were mostly used in England, and nearly three-fourths of this vast quantity was drunk as a beverage.

A petition to the Governor General, praying that the sentence of death passed upon Purcell be commuted, is being circulated at London, Ontario, for signatures.

Emigration from Ireland, though greatly diminished, still continues at the rate of more than seventy thousand persons a year.

The population of Pennsylvania is 5,248,591—an increase of 965,683.

The French authorities are trying to suppress gambling in that country.

GLASGOW AND LIVERPOOL.

Now Laborers and Wages are Under Free Trade.

I was in Glasgow, says Senator Frye, and I feel a profound interest in the Clyde, I had been buried at my head more than a year and a half times since I have been in Congress—the Clyde and the shipbuilding of the Clyde, that they could beat us, that we are Lancashire, paid with the tariff, and all that sort of thing. So, I took a deep interest in the Clyde. I went up to the Loongam Iron Works. They cover thirty-five acres of ground; they are right near to the coal and the iron; the average haul of the coal is two miles, and the average cost of the coal delivered is five shillings a ton, the blast furnaces are seven in number and the average product is 300 tons of pig-iron a day. What are the wages? Laborers from two shillings and two pence to two shillings and six pence a day. What would Pittsburg laborer say to that? Skilled labor, three shillings to seven shillings, and more of them at three than at seven. Coal miners, $5 59 to $5 88 a week, and board themselves. Iron miners, $5 34 to $5 59 a week. Pit hand foreman—that is one of the high-priced fellows, one of the aristocrats—from $6 25 to $6 32 a week. Wages have decreased for five years in Glasgow. And Bright said, in a speech that he made—and I stole this from Mr. Porter, as I do almost every good thing that I say—Bright said in a speech that he made, that in Glasgow alone 41,000 families out of every 100,000 lived each in one room. And I should say, from my observation, that half the men and women in Glasgow to-day were out of work. Now what could you expect wages to be? And the same is true in England.

I was in Liverpool for ten days, and almost every day went to look over those docks. I could whistle Yankee Doodle almost all over Europe, but when I struck these docks I was silent. I do believe they beat anything in the United States or in the world. I was unusually attracted to them, and in the habit of going down there mornings and afternoons. I am safe in saying that I have seen 500 able-bodied men, looking hungry, as a hungry man looks, stalking about those docks and begging for a little work, not getting it; coming down—after dinner, I was going to say—coming down after the time men ordinarily eat dinner, their numbers augmented, and beseeching again for work, ten cents worth, twenty cents worth, "any work, for God's sake, and to feed my children." How can wages be high where that thing endures?

Accidentally Shot.

A camper, on his way from Oregon to Round valley with his wife, camped near Stillwater, Cal., on Thursday night. When getting ready to pursue his journey Friday morning another camper came along and engaged in conversation. The first camper reached down under a wagon to get a shotgun to show to his companion. He took hold of it muzzle first and while dragging it forth the gun was discharged, the charge entering and carelessly mutilating his left thigh. The man was carried on a litter three miles to Newton and a doctor sent for. It is feared he can not return.

Gladstone on the Jewish Persecutions.

Gladstone, replying to an appeal from the editor of the Jewish Chronicle, writes: "I have read with feelings of pain and horror, various statements made concerning the sufferings of Jews in Russia. The only recommendation I can give is to invite the active exertions of the press to at first sift the reports, and then, if the facts be established, to arouse the conscience of Russia and Europe on the subject."

Mills Purchased by an English Syndicate.

An English syndicate has just closed a bargain whereby it becomes the owner of three of the largest woolen mills in New England, those of the Lymanville Company at North Providence, R. I., the Harrisville (R. I.) mills of William Tinkham & Co. and the H. A. Kimball mills at Manton, R. I. The machinery in all these mills is almost new and they are doing a big business.

Russia and the Jews.

Secretary Blaine has been informed by United States Minister to Russia, in regard to the various reports of the alleged persecution by the Russian Government of Hebrews living in that country, that he will be able to present not only the denial of the Russian Government, but of the Hebrews themselves, and confirmatory testimony that these injurious allegations are baseless.

Guthrie Holds the Fort.

The capital site was taken up again in the Oklahoma Legislature Thursday. The Kingfisher and Oklahoma City delegates managed to rush through to a third reading of the bill locating the capital at Kingfisher, before the Guthrie men were aware of what was going on. Then after a terrible uproar the Guthrie delegates resorted to filibustering and to-night held the fort. Trouble is expected.

FAVOR RECIPROCITY WITH AMERICA.

The meeting called by the Board of Planters of Cuba, Thursday, to consider the tariff question, was attended by the wealthiest planters of Cuba. It was decided to send the Minister of the Colonies a petition in favor of reciprocity with America and a revocation of the law of mercantile relations with Spain.

Justice Miller was buried in Keokuk, Iowa.

A BRILLIANT BAIL.

Given by Baron Hirsch and Attended by the Prince of Wales.

Baron Hirsch's ball, given at his Austrian estates in honor of the Prince of Wales, was one of the most magnificent entertainments ever witnessed. The Prince declared that he was enchanted, and he remained until midnight admiring the brilliant scene. The affair is said to have cost the ambiguous host 250,000 florins. The Baron is pouring money out like water in all directions in the effort to obtain a foothold in the circles from which he has been proscribed on account of his race. The Austrian court is said to be considerably scandalized by the action of the Prince of Wales in visiting an Austrian subject who is not recognized by it.

Nat Goodwin's Sorrow.

WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., October 17.—Just before going on the stage last night Nat Goodwin received a telegram saying his wife had been probably fatally injured. The comedian bravely went through his part, although he broke down at some of the pathetic passages.

Dropped Dead While Debating.

In the Socialist Congress Friday, Baumgarten, one of the delegates from Hamburg, was taking part in the debate. In the midst of an argument in which he became very excited, he staggered and fell to the floor dead. The cause was probably heart disease or apoplexy.

Don't Like the Alliance.

That Republicans are worried by the Farmers' Alliance movement in Kansas is shown by the announcement that Senators Cullom, of Illinois, and Allison of Iowa, in addition to the Kansas Senators, Ingalls and Plumb, will stamp the State this month.

Pardon.

Mills Purchased by an English Syndicate.

An English syndicate has just closed a bargain whereby it becomes the owner of three of the largest woolen mills in New England, those of the Lymanville Company at North Providence, R. I., the Harrisville (R. I.) mills of William Tinkham & Co. and the H. A. Kimball mills at Manton, R. I. The machinery in all these mills is almost new and they are doing a big business.

Gladstone, replying to an appeal from the editor of the Jewish Chronicle, writes: "I have read with feelings of pain and horror, various statements made concerning the sufferings of Jews in Russia. The only recommendation I can give is to invite the active exertions of the press to at first sift the reports, and then, if the facts be established, to arouse the conscience of Russia and Europe on the subject."

Mixing Straw With Third Crop. Last Fall H. F. Dangberg tried an experiment on utilizing straw for feed, says the Genoa Courier. In stacking the third crop of alfalfa he mixed the straw with it. The dry straw absorbed the moisture from the hay, greatly to the improvement of the latter. Mr. Dangberg was highly gratified with the result of his experiment. When threshing his grain this Fall he will have three teams hauling straw and three hauling hay and mixing the two together in the stack. The third crop of alfalfa is usually harvested in cold weather when it is difficult to core the hay. Many farmers might find it to their advantage to follow Mr. Dangberg's example.

Decidedly Impulsive.

Yesterday morning at Boston Daniel H. Wilson, an employee of the Adams Express Company, shot and killed his wife, and then sent a bullet into his own breast, inflicting a probably fatal wound. NEVADA'S TRUE FRIEND.

Senator Jones to Talk on the Tariff.

A Washington dispatch says that Senator John P. Jones is now on his way to the Pacific Coast to take part in the campaign in his State. He will probably devote his speech to the discussion of the silver question and the tariff. His noted speech on the silver question gained for him much commendation everywhere, and the speech he delivered on the tariff on the last day of its consideration in the Senate was equally original and forcible. A friend of Senator Jones Thursday received a letter from Edward H. Ammidown, President of the Protective Tariff League, in which the distinguished writer speaks as follows of what the Senator from Nevada had to say about the tariff:

"One of the most remarkable speeches ever delivered in the Senate of the United States is that of Senator Jones, of Nevada, on the tariff on the 10th of September. For comprehensiveness and strength, covering the whole argument, including the philosophy and common sense of protection, it has never been equalled. Especially is it remarkable for the broad and generous humanitarianism which pervades it and forms the base of many of its strongest arguments. It is interesting, also, because it differs from the ordinary tariff speech in the omission of statistics and presents a class of reasons which appeal to the heart as well as to the intelligence of men."

IS PREACHING A FAILURE?

Dr. Parker Asks the People for an Expression of Opinion.

Dr. Parker, the eminent preacher, is trying to find out what the people think of preaching as a modern institution, and give expression of public opinion on the subject, either publicly through the newspapers or privately in a personal communication to him. He desires as many opinions as possible on the modern sermon.

What he asks is: What are its deficiencies? Has it been ousted by more useful competitors? Is there still room for preaching, or is the poor old thing dead and gone?

He intends to make this the subject of an address on November 4th, and will utilize the substance of the replies which he obtains to this appeal.

Senator Stewart Interviewed.

While in San Francisco Senator Stewart was interviewed by a Chronicle reporter, to whom he said.

"We have passed two good measures—the Silver bill and the Tariff bill," said the Senator. "I call that a good season's work. Congress, although there were plenty of other good bills put through by the Republicans. Our Democratic friends fought both of those leading measures, but they will live to be sorry for it."

"Will the country suffer in the least from the passage of the McKinley bill? No, sir; emphatically no. Lies have been circulated all over about the way the act is affecting the people, but I fancy they do very few. Such a stimulus as will be given to our manufacturing industries has never been known, and the benefit will be a lasting one. Protection means more than some people think, but the public is learning and will learn a good deal more. This talk of stiffening prices as a result of the tariff is all nonsense. Why, we are going to have as cheap if not cheaper prices than ever. Competition will do it. Look at our borax and quicksilver industries. See how they have been benefited by the tariff. Many others will be similarly advanced."

"Yes, I have heard some talk of an extra session of Congress, and there may be one, but I hope not. I am going up to Virginia, Nev., in a day or two, and will trumpet the State of Nevada in the interest of the Republicans, who will be sure to win there this Fall."

"Our State is going ahead very rapidly. Mining is no longer its one industry. Agriculture and horticulture are receiving a impetus. We are growing excellent apples. All of the harder fruits grow well in our climate, and you would be surprised to see what quantities we are raising of them."

Friends Gathered for a marriage Attend a Funeral.

RED BLUFF, October 16.—Coit Herrick was to be married last week to the oldest daughter of Bart Johnson, the well known hotel-keeper at Big Meadows, Plumas county. He was in Red Bluff a week ago, since which time he has not been seen or heard from. Friends gathered from miles about to attend the wedding.

THE GROOM ABSENT.

On Thursday last Herrick was to have been at Johnson's, and his absence that day and the one following impelled Miss Johnson to take to her room, which she did not leave even for her meals. Her sister slept with her Thursday night, and when she awoke in the morning she discovered that her sister was ill and demanded attention.

Her relatives at once went to her assistance, and she was asked if she had taken anything to endanger her life, and she replied no. She continued to get worse and died, and was buried on Sunday. Those who gathered to attend the wedding went to the funeral instead.

Herrick's effects are at a stable in this place, while his trunk is at an orchard in Antelope valley. Herrick was about thirty years old, of medium build and wore a dark brown moustache. He was very red in the face.

THE U. P. OUT OF ORDER.

Causes of the Recent Delays of Mails—Probable Change of Time.

The San Francisco Chronicle says: The continual delays in the arrival of the overland mails ever since the beginning of this month have prompted inquiry into the cause. The Central Pacific trains have made the trip from Ogden to this city with unfaulting regularity so far as the actual hours of travel are concerned. The only exception to this was in the case of the bridge burned on the Sacramento division last week, in which instance the delay was unavoidable. The trouble has been all along in starting late from Ogden. The Union Pacific train has failed to arrive on time by a daily average of two and one-half hours, the actual time varying from 45 minutes to seven and one-half hours. In many instances an hour or two has been made up on the Central Pacific by running faster than schedule time but in no case has the trip been made in less time than that set down on the tables.

In view of the apparent inability of the Union Pacific to connect, changes have been recommended to that company, and will be made public on the 27th of this month. These changes will allow the company from time to four hours more in its west-bound trip as far as Ogden. In other words, the Central Pacific train will regularly connect about two hours later than at present. This will bring the mails to this city at about 1:30 o'clock in the afternoon instead of 9:45 o'clock in the morning. This change will be kept up for the entire Winter season. The announcements are to be made on the date named, and will go into effect November 10th. No information as to the cause of the delays on the Union Pacific is obtainable at the local offices, but the reasons are known to be the bad condition of the tracks and the fact that the locomotives are out of repair and cannot be run on proper time. The company is so busily engaged in working elsewhere that its mail route has been neglected.

EDISON'S NEW SCHEMES.

He Will Make an Air Ship and Simplify Telegraphy.

One of Edison's assistants says the wizard has declared his intention to equip an air ship which will admit of the practical utility of electricity for aerial travel.

Another idea, which if perfect, will revolutionize the telegraphic world, is undergoing experiments by Mr. Edison. The new discovery consists of a combination of metals known only to the inventor, which will, by connecting with terra firma, carry sound by a great permanent connection, which obviates the necessity of a telegraph wire being run double between two cities in order to make the circuit. The idea seems quite feasible.

Mr. Edison has already conducted his experiments on this idea to such an extent that by standing out of ordinary hearing distance one can distinctly hear the faintest whisper. The wizard is quoted as saying that if electricity can be analyzed and accounted for there will be no difficulty in using it to its fullest capacity.

Judge Sawyer's Substitute.

The San Francisco Bulletin, of Friday, says:

Judge Hawley, of Nevada, sat as Circuit Judge to-day for the first time and heard the habeas corpus case of Ah Fook in Judge Sawyer's chambers. Judge Hawley is a dignified looking man of medium height and about fifty-five years of age. He is stout in build and is clean shaven, save a goatee, which, like his hair, is iron gray in color. His courteous manner has made a favorable impression among the officials in the Appraisers' Building.

Dyspepsia

Makes the lives of many people miserable, and often leads to self-destruction. Distress after eating, sour stomach, sick headache, hibernation, loss of appetite, a faint, "all gone" feeling, bad taste, coated tongue, and irregularity of the bowels, are some of the more common symptoms.

After Eating

Dyspepsia does not get well of itself. It requires careful, persistent attention, and a remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which acts gently, yet surely and efficiently. It tones the stomach and other organs, regulates the digestion, creates a good appetite, and thus overcomes the local symptoms.

Sick Headache

Headache is one of the most common symptoms. Dyspepsia does not get well of itself.

It distresses me, or did I eat

burn after eating I would experience a faintness, or tired, all-gone feeling, as though I had not eaten anything. My trouble, I think, was aggravated by my business, which is that of a painter, and from being more or less shut up in a Sour Stomach room with fresh paint. Last spring I took Hood's Sarsaparilla—took three bottles. It did me an immense amount of good. It gave me an appetite, and my food relished and satisfied the craving I had previously experienced."
